

Fall 2022 California Community Colleges Real Estate Education Center Conference

Emily Maynard, M.A.
CCCREEC Grant Project Manager

October 21, 2022

WHAT IS CCCCREEC

The Center is funded by a grant from the Real Estate Education Endowment, managed by the Foundation for California Community Colleges.

The REEE was established in 1975 by the California DRE and was managed for 35 years by the California Community Colleges Chancellor's office.

Hosted at Saddleback College since 2016.

WHO CCCREEC HELPS

The Center supports:

- California Community Colleges Real Estate Programs
- California Community Colleges Real Estate Faculty
- California Community Colleges Real Estate Students

WHAT CCCREEC DOES

- Support Real Estate and Appraisal Programs
- Encourage Enrollment in Real Estate and Appraisal Career Education Courses
- Provide Faculty Professional Development Programs
- Coordinate CCC Real Estate Programs with DRE and BREB
- Share Resources and Data Statewide
- Promote Real Estate Student Scholarships & Career Opportunities in Real Estate Industries

2022-2023 STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

$73,000 Available for Eligible Real Estate Students

- $600 per semester, up to $1200 per year
- Non-Competitive (First come, first served)
- Successfully completed at least 1 real estate class (3-unit)
- Currently enrolled in at least 1 real estate class (3-unit)
- Eligible for California College Promise Grant Program or demonstrate other financial need
- Students submit application to their college, college submits invoice to the Foundation for California Community College

REAL ESTATE ENROLLMENT DATA

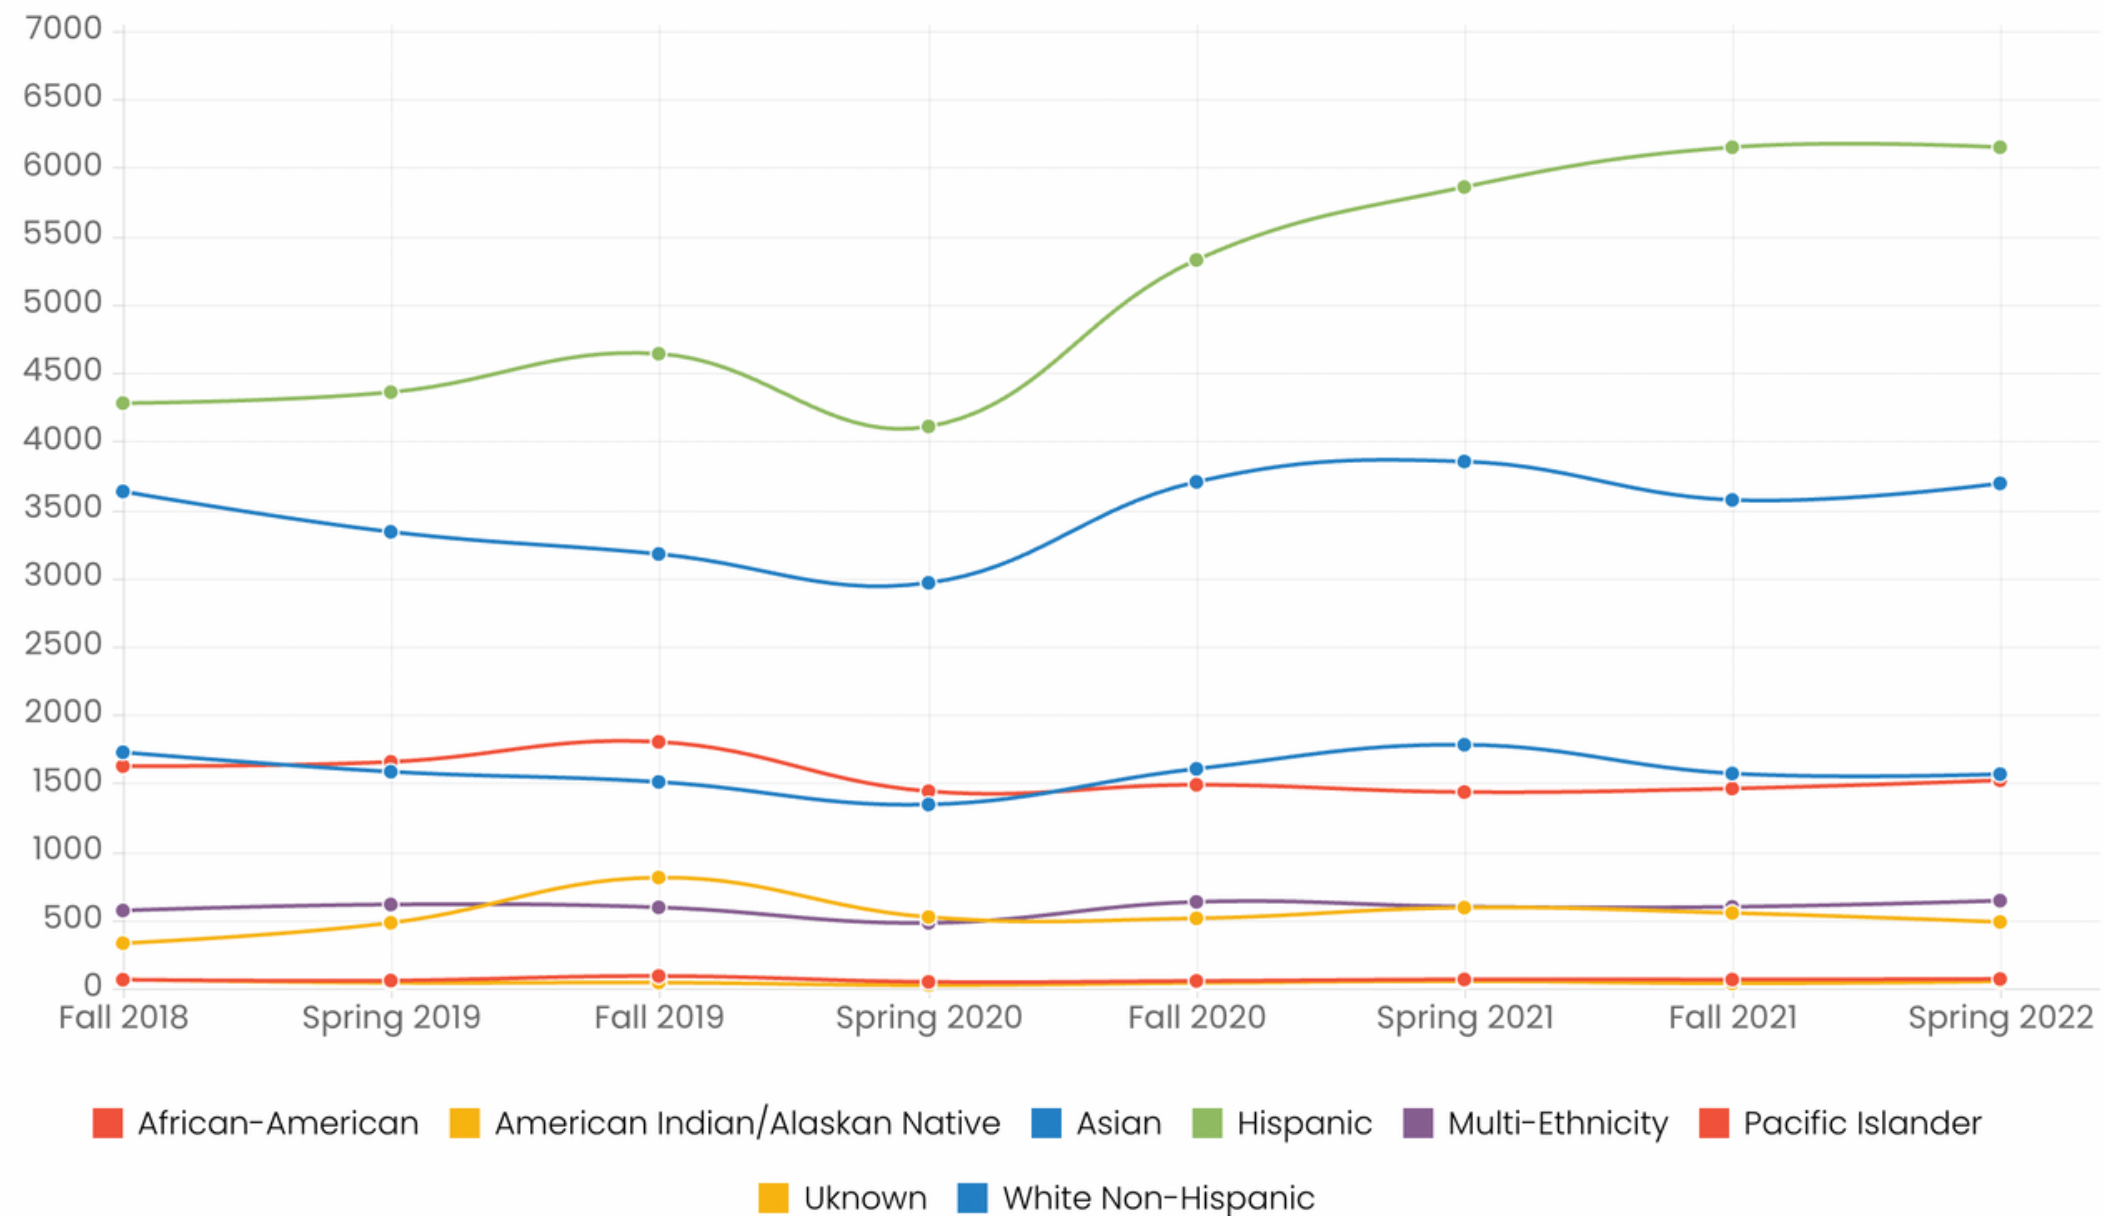

Statewide Enrollment in California Community Colleges Real Estate Courses

REAL ESTATE ENROLLMENT DATA

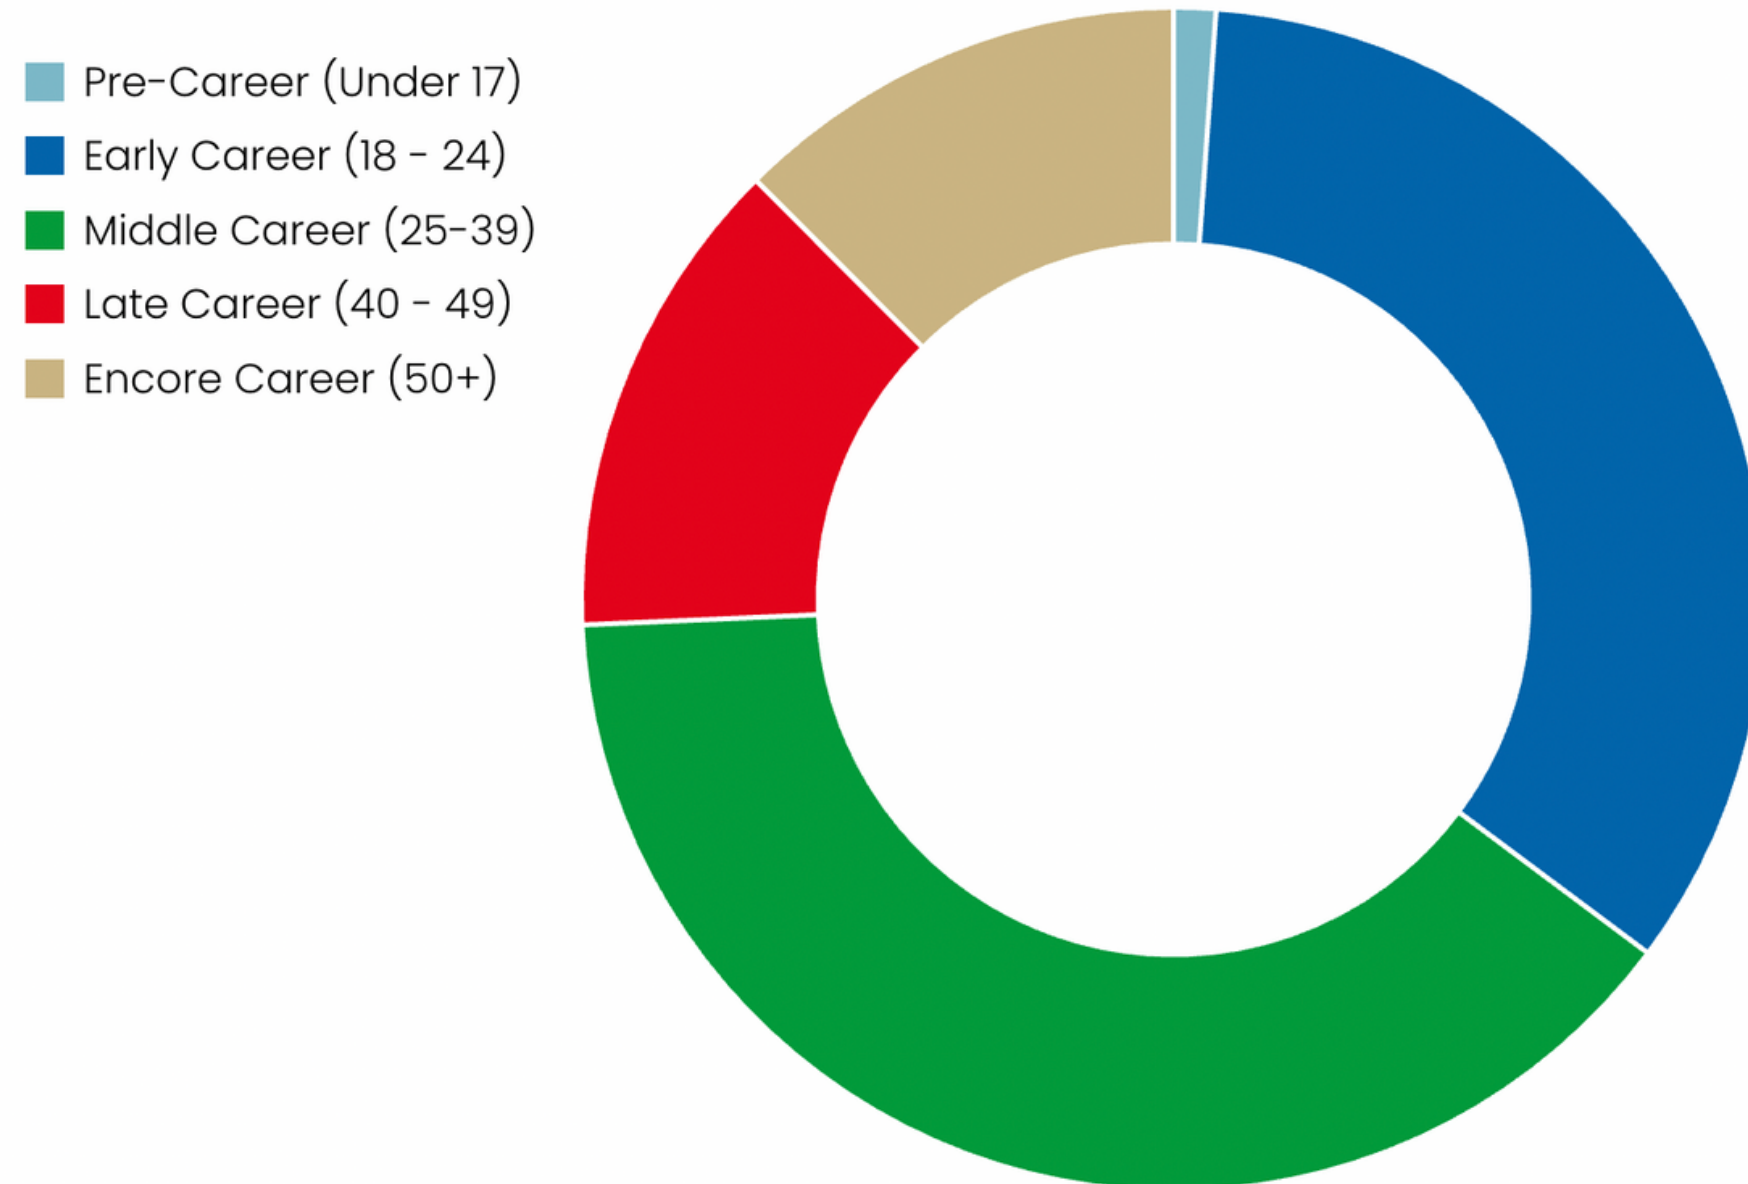

Real Estate Enrollments by Ethnicity

REAL ESTATE ENROLLMENT DATA

Real Estate Course Enrollments by Age

2022-2023 CCCREEC

Goals include:

- Supporting compliance with SB 1495 & AB 948 requirements through DRE and BREAA
- Aligning real estate courses with statewide initiatives from CCCCO including Vision for Success, ZTC, CDCP Non-Credit, etc.
- Improving connection with industry, including Commercial
- Full distribution of $73,000 scholarship funds to students
- Professional development opportunities (Virtual Conference Spring 2023 - April 20 & 21, Bay Area Regional Meeting March 2023)
- Connecting faculty across colleges with resources & peer support, job opportunities, etc.
- Making your good ideas into reality!

CONTACT CCCREEC

Website: www.cccreec.org

Email: hello@cccreec.org

LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/company/cccreec

Phone: 949-348-6271

